

From this cvwo assignment, I have learn a bit of web development and am able to follow instruction to create a web using rails. Although it is still quite difficult for me to do web development independently since I having a tutor or instructor beside would greatly improve efficiency, I believe that I can do better.